Overview

Annual revisions and developments to our questionnaires reflect and drive best practice, improving both data quality and the disclosure experience. The 2023 forests questionnaire, including sector questions and the reporting guidance, can be viewed at www.cdp.net/en/guidance.

This document indicates what has changed for 2023.

- Part 1 lists key changes: new questions, removed questions, modifications to existing questions and the reporting guidance.
- Part 2 details where 2023 questions differ from the 2022 questionnaire – including minor changes.
- Part 3 sets out the structure of the 2023 questionnaire with a list of modules and questions. It shows which questions form the minimum version of the questionnaire (for some smaller companies and some responding for the first time) and indicates the linkages between questions (where a response to one question impacts another).

Scale of 2023 changes

73% of the 2022 questions have either not changed or have just minor changes (excludes specific and supply chain module questions).

Changes to core questions

- The total number of questions has risen by 2 to 80.
- There are 5 new questions.
- 3 questions are removed, and the data points incorporated into other questions.
- The figure opposite shows the scale of change within each module.

Changes to sector-specific questionnaire

- There is no minimum version disclosure for MM or CO companies. All MM/CO companies complete the full questionnaire for their sector.
