About CDP

CDP is an environmental non-profit running the global disclosure system that enables companies, cities, states and regions to measure and manage their environmental impacts.

Data drives our mission. Through our work, we have built the world's most comprehensive collection of self-reported environmental data.

CDP data facilitates environmental action globally with granular insights, year-on-year tracking, and trusted benchmarks.

Over 330+ major buyers, with a combined purchasing power of over US$6.4 trillion, are asking their suppliers to disclose through the CDP Supply Chain program.

Over 700+ investors, with assets of US$142+ trillion, are requesting companies to disclose through CDP.

We host global events and webinars with thought leaders in the field.

We are founding partners of the Science Based Targets Initiative.

Through our offices and partners in 50 countries we have driven unprecedented levels of environmental disclosure.

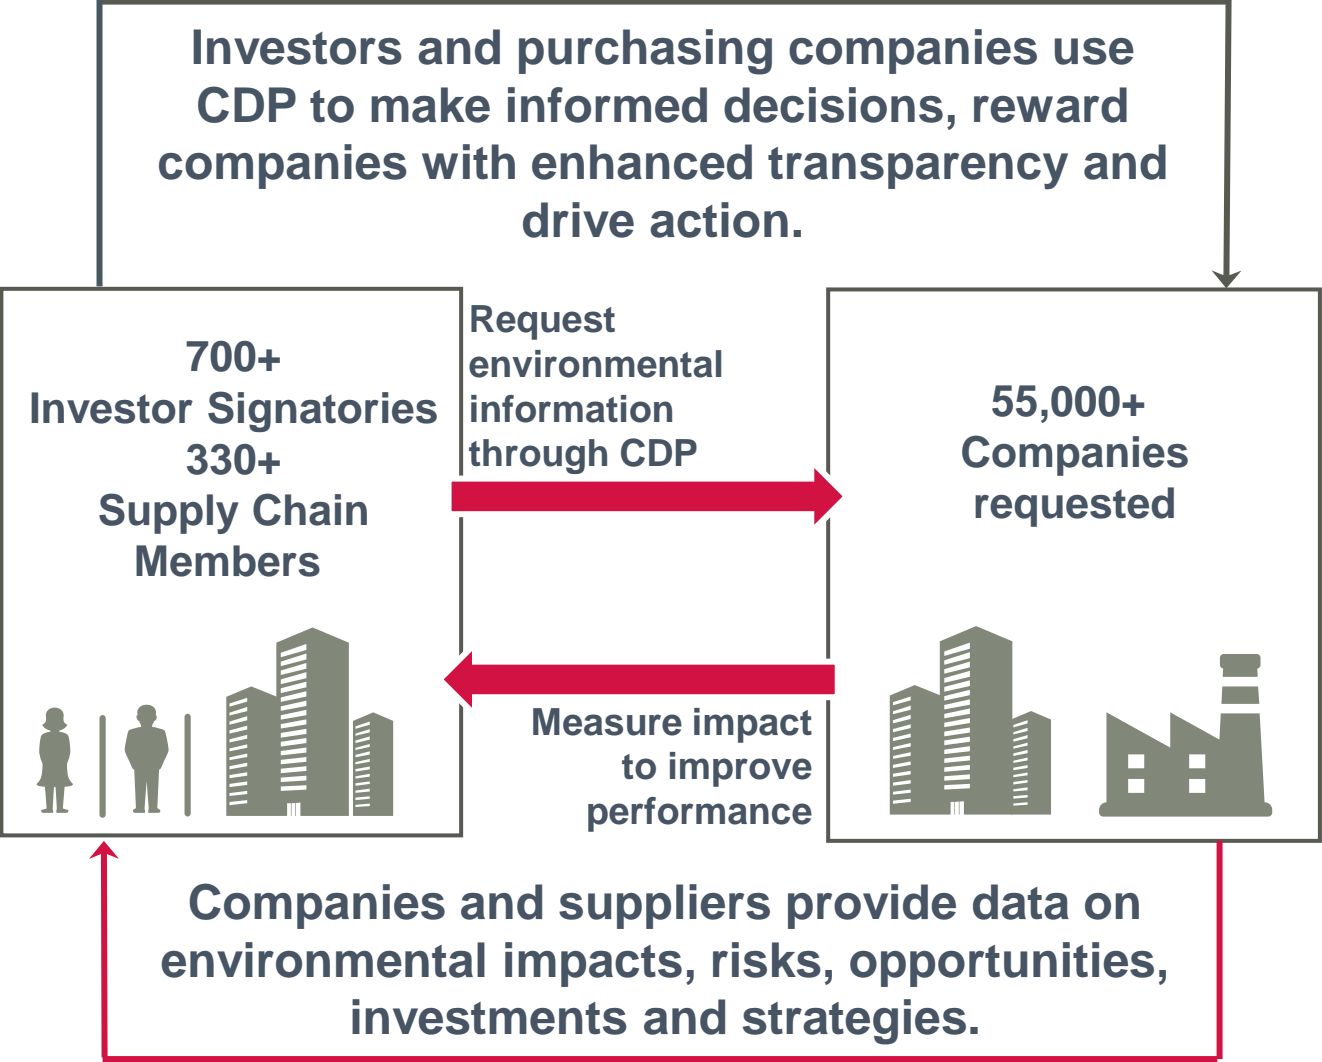

A Growing Movement: Suppliers Increasingly Disclosing through CDP

Growth in CDP Supply Chain Disclosures

How CDP Works

Companies take action to tackle climate change, prevent the destruction of forests, safeguard water resources, reduce plastic pollution and protect biodiversity.

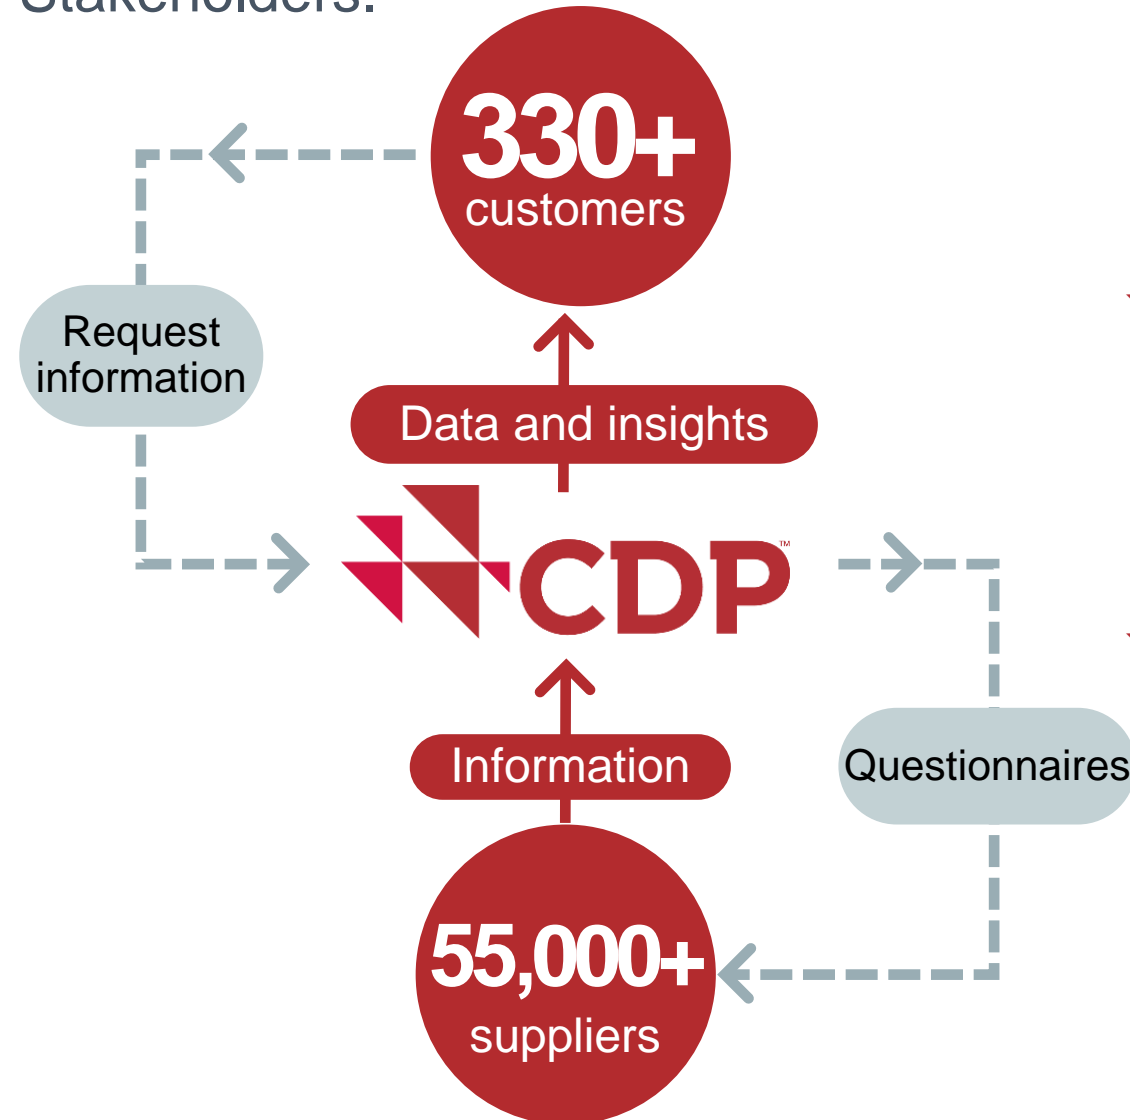

CDP Disclosure Platform

One Response. Multiple Stakeholders.

Supply Chain members (Customers)

- Customers identify strategic suppliers to evaluate their potential climate impacts, deforestation, and water security risks through CDP's disclosure platform.
- Customers use the reported data to measure supplier environmental impacts and track the progress of internal and external sustainability goals and/or commitments.

Suppliers

- Requested suppliers report qualitative and quantitative information in a standardized way, which will ultimately be reviewed and analyzed by requesting Customers.
- Suppliers improve their responses and calculations through feedback from Customers, CDP's action exchange initiative, and scoring documents.

Benefits of participating

Measure and reduce environmental impact and benchmark impact against peers

Identify cost savings and areas to improve operational efficiency

Uncover risks and opportunities and communicate risk management practices

Propose collaborative opportunities and increase value from customer relationships

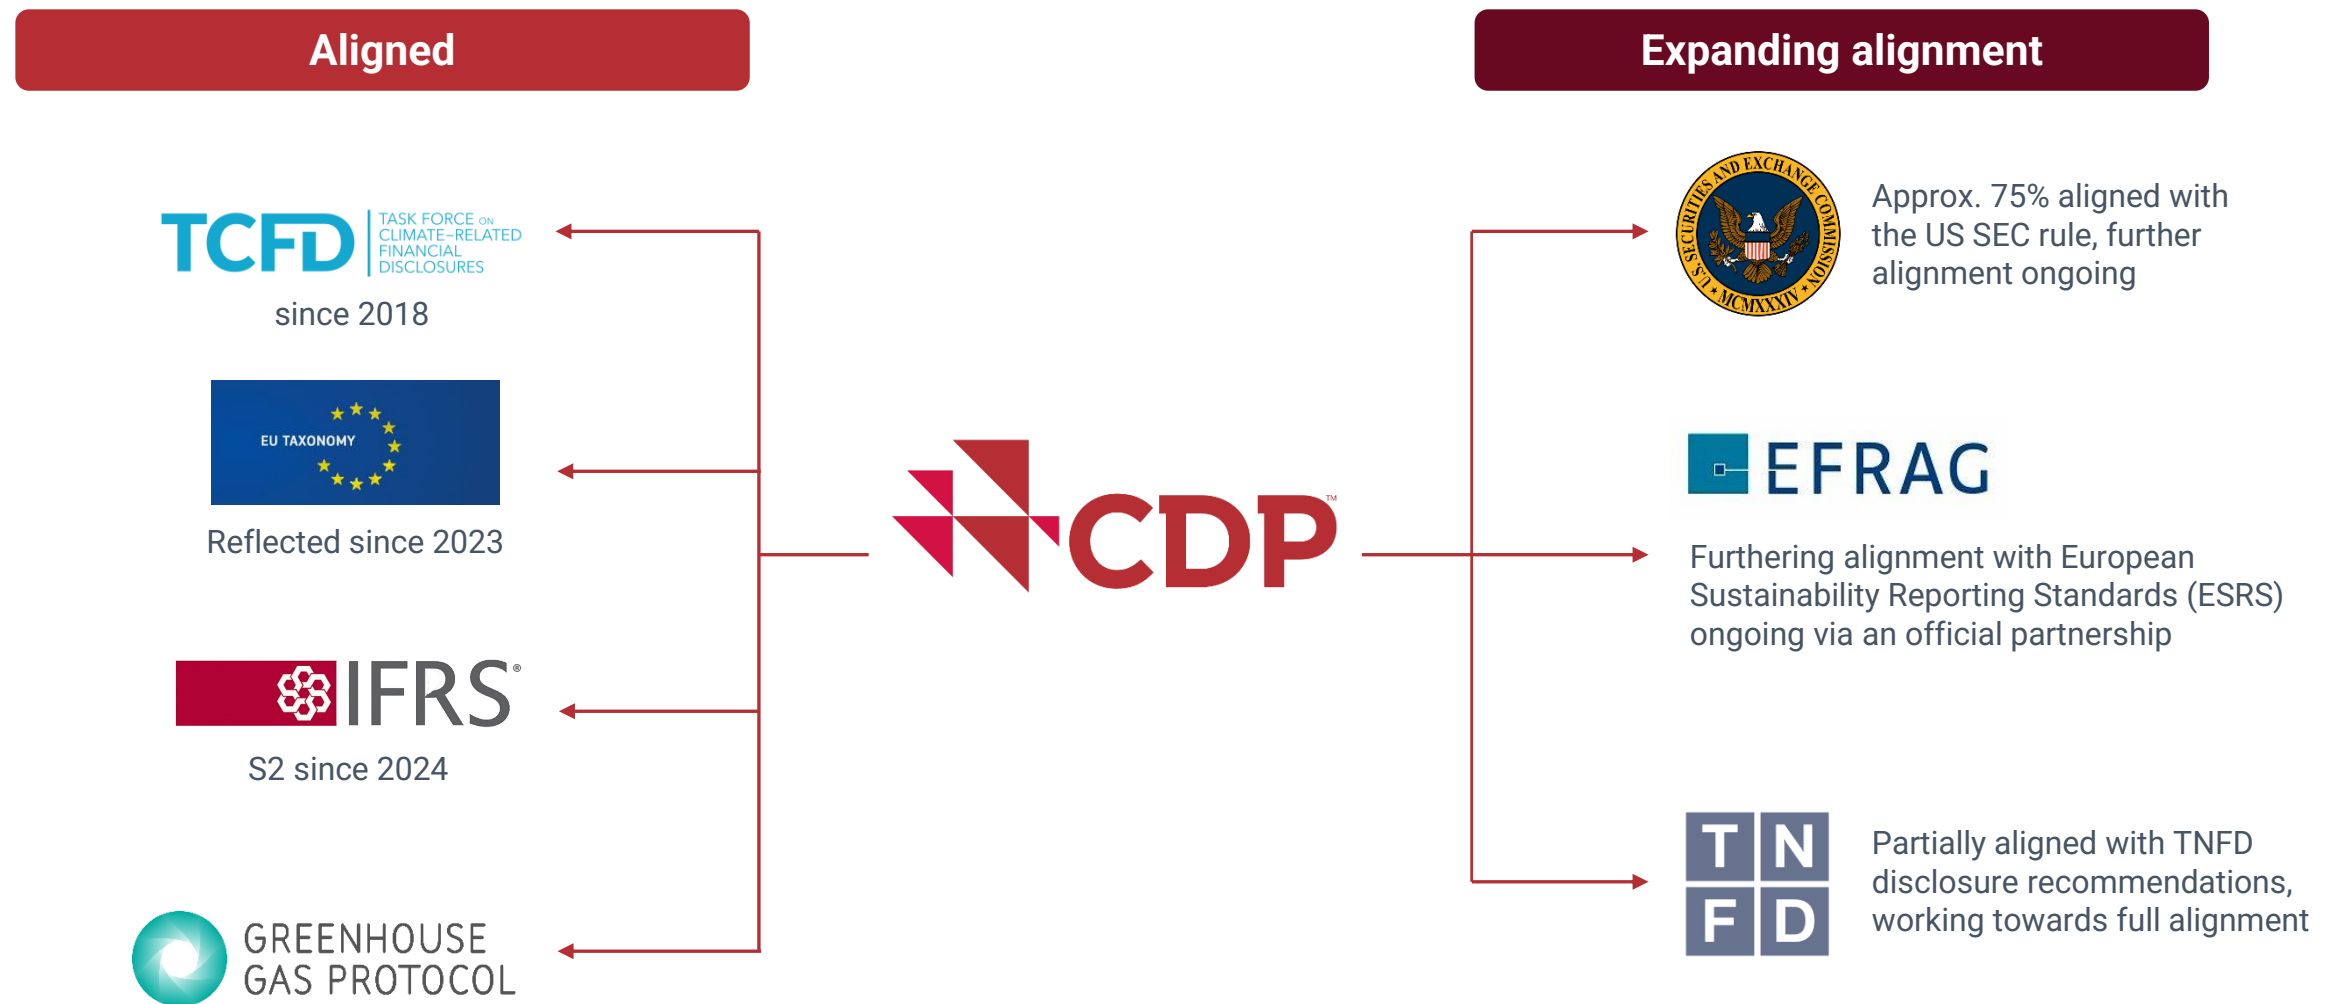

Demonstrate environmental leadership to their customers, investors and employees

One response for all customers and stakeholders

Enabling standards-aligned disclosure globally

A single corporate questionnaire

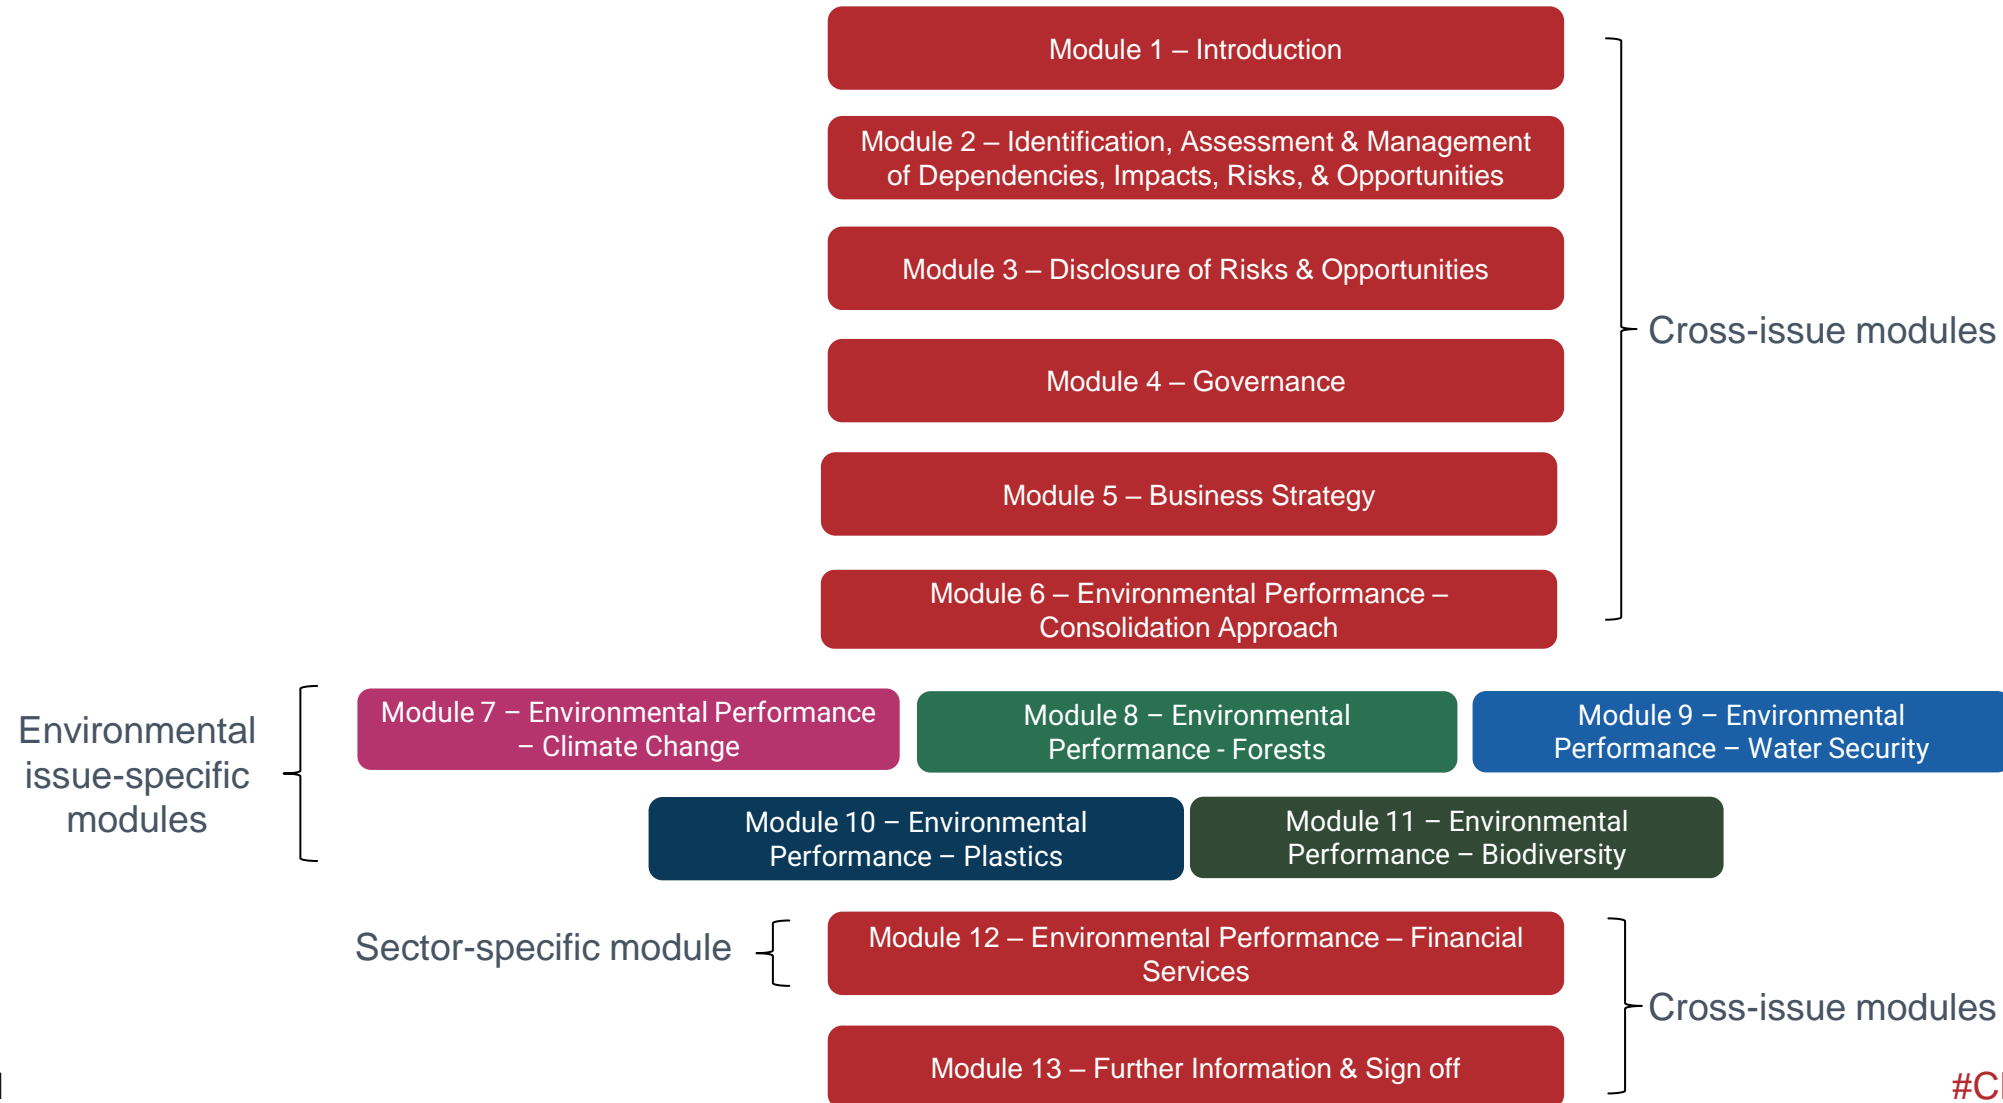

- ▼ This ensures that global capital markets, procurement teams and the data ecosystem that relies on CDP have the most robust, decision-useful environmental data.

- ▼ By streamlining reporting, we'll ask the right questions, to the right organizations, in the right way without duplication.

Questionnaire layout & structure

'Full' Corporate questionnaire

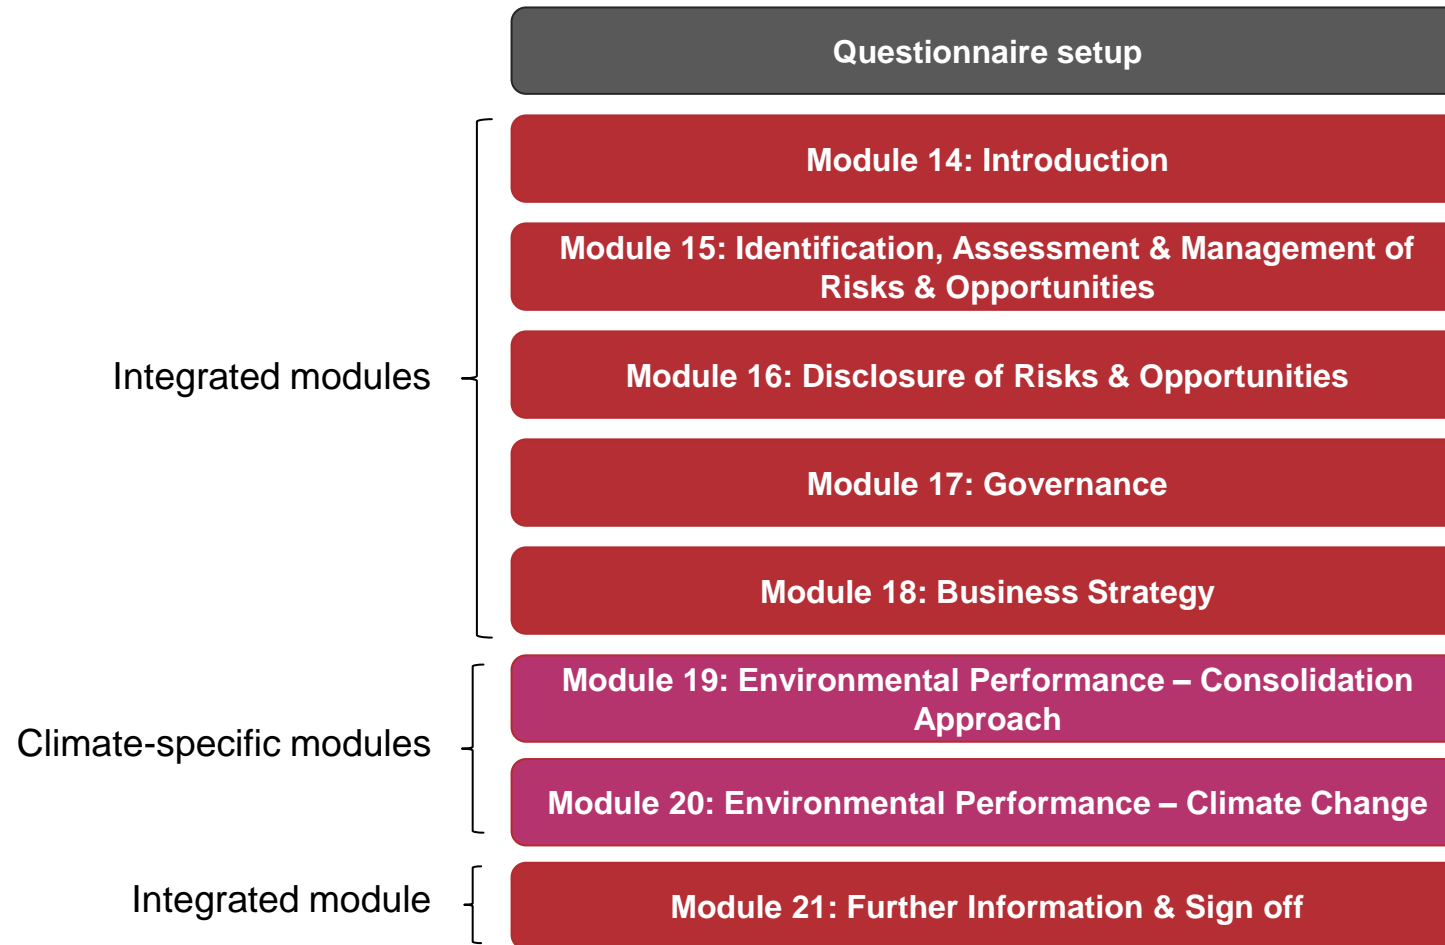

SME disclosure

- ▼ SME questionnaire (recommended): IF headcount < 500 and revenue < US$50 million
- ▼ Full questionnaire (recommended): IF headcount < 500 AND revenue $50-250 million, OR IF headcount 500-1,000 AND revenue < US$250 million
- ▼ Full questionnaire required: IF headcount > 1,000 OR revenue > US$250 million

Rising mean temperatures have the potential to negatively affect our operations.	Due to a rise in mean temperatures, there is a risk that the energy consumption needed for air conditioning and refrigeration will increase, leading to an increase in costs. There is a particular risk of energy consumption increasing at our shops, offices, and distribution centers.	60% of our plants are located in central America, an area that has been identified as likely being subject to large increases in mean temperatures. Such increases in temperature may lead to an increase in the energy consumption required for air conditioning and refrigeration to remain effective. This will lead to increased operational costs across our business.
